EXHIBITOR REGISTRATION FORM

SOCIETY FOR CONSERVATION BIOLOGY 20th ANNUAL MEETING • 24–28 JUNE 2006

San Jose McEnery Convention Center
San Jose, California, USA

www.ConservationBiology.org/2006

We welcome commercial and non-profit exhibitors to participate in Conservation Without Borders, SCB's 2006 annual meeting. Exhibits will be located in Exhibit Hall 1 of San Jose's McEnery Convention Center. All meeting events will be held at the convention center or immediately adjacent. The exhibit hall is across the corridor from most of the concurrent meeting sessions. We anticipate that refreshments and posters also will be located in the hall, encouraging attendees to explore the exhibition booths.

Booths will be 8' x 12', with an 8' high blue back drape, 3' high blue-draped side walls, a 8' white-skirted table, two chairs, and a wastebasket. A one-line, 7" x 44" exhibitor identification sign also is included in the basic booth package.

After we receive your initial reservation and payment, we will forward information from our exposition services contractor about the availability and cost of special requests, such as electrical connections and carpeting. Arrangements also may be made directly with our contractor for advance shipments and direct shipments. Exhibit installation will begin at 1:00 P.M. on 24 June. Dismantling must be completed by 3:00 P.M. on the afternoon of 28 June.

WE MUST RECEIVE YOUR REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT BY 15 MAY 2006

The rate for non-profit exhibitors is $1000. The rate for commercial exhibitors is $1400.

Would you like to become a meeting sponsor?

We welcome contributions of cash or merchandise (books or journal subscriptions, for example) that will be used to support the objectives of the 2006 meeting and the mission of SCB. Contributions help us to defray expenses for professionals and graduate students in low-income countries, facilitate training workshops, improve communication with the media, and enhance continuing education opportunities. Sponsors are acknowledged in the meeting program, Web site, and printed promotional materials.
